A LOUISVILLE MAN MURDERED

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 5—During a squall on Lake Michigan the steamer Erie L. Hackley was capsized and twelve persons were drowned. The Goodrich line steamer Sheboygan rescued the seven persons on board the Hackley.

THE DROWNED.

George LeClair, Jr., Jacksonport, Wis.

Jos. Vorous, captain of the Hackley, Fishcreek.

Edna Barringer.

Lawrence Barringer, Fishcreek.

Henry Rabloty, Fishcreek.

Carl Kellky, Fishcreek.

Miss Frances Vincent.

Miss Vincent's sister, Egg Harbor, Wis.

Freeman Thory, Fishcreek.

Nels Nelson, Sturgeon Bay.

Frank Fitzgibbons, Jacksonport.

T. J. Truckly, cook.

The Hackley was struck by a squall when seven miles off Green Island. The upperwork was blown away before the boatmen could reach a haven. The boat then turned over and went down in the deep water.

As the Hackley went to the bottom those who could, seized on floating wreckage, while men and three or four women, failing to find any object to cling to, sank in the raging sea.

FATAL CYCLONE IN ILLINOIS.

Princeton, Ill., Oct. 5—A tornado passed two miles southeast of the city yesterday, killing three persons and destroying a large amount of farm property.

THE DEAD.

Mrs. C. F. Sherwin.

Mrs. Alvira Sherwin, mother of Charles F. Sherwin.

Mrs. Emma Welsh.

Charles Sherwin received serious internal injuries.

The storm started at the home of J. F. Carter, two miles southeast of Princeton.

KILLING AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5—Robert Dalton Burdine, a well known young man, was murdered and W. D. Hays, his cousin, probably fatally hurt, in a fight with negroes on the river front yesterday. The young men, who are members of the Louisville Boat club, left for a sail in the afternoon, accompanied by several fellow club members and as they were passing Towhead Island, were attacked by several negroes who threw lumps of coal into the boat. The boat tied up, and its occupants started after the negroes, chasing them into a yard, where Will Fletcher, colored, seized an ax and striking Burdine over the head, killed him instantly. Hays attempted to secure the ax from the negro, but was assaulted from behind and badly injured. The police arrested four negroes, including Fletcher, although fully twenty were concerned in the assault.

MRS. DAVIS BETTER.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 5—Mrs. Jefferson Davis is rapidly recovering from her illness. Her physicians believe she will be able to leave for her winter home in New York this week.

DENNIS INDICTED

MAN WELL KNOWN HERE IN TROUBLE AT ST. LOUIS.

H. C. Dennis, who goes by the name of "Major" Hugh O. Dennis in St. Louis, was indicted on five counts there Saturday for alleged crookedness. He has been running some sort of a get-rich-quick company there, and is remembered here as a fine looking man who boarded at the New Almond hotel for several months a few years ago, being in the insurance business. He is said to be worth about $75,000.

Red Men's Week of Fun Started Off.

The Carnival Company Is on the Grounds—Crowds Begin to Arrive.

BIG PARADE AT 6:30 P. M.

ADJUDGED INSANE AT ONCE

The first day of the carnival has not been a very lively one, partly because the festivities do not usually get into play until the second day, and partly because the weather was very ugly most of the day.

There are quite a number of strangers in the city, but the crowds will not arrive until later in the week. Tomorrow the influx will begin.

The Heck Carnival company arrived yesterday afternoon from Cairo, and the shows have been placed in position at the grounds at 14th and Broadway and everything is ready for the opening this evening.

The parade at 6:30 should not be forgotten, and the prospects are for a large crowd to see it. The Carnival company has its entire outfit, and in addition will put on as a free attraction Tuesday evening one of the most expensive and beautiful spectacular attractions on the road, "Niagara Afire." It costs $300 to put it on one time and should be seen by everybody.

The Red Men today opened headquarters at the festival grounds, and there is nothing but business and bustle both at the down town and the carnival headquarters.

One feature of the carnival parade tonight at 6:30 will be the battle at Fourth and Broadway between Captain John Smith and followers and the Indians, who will capture him but who will later be charged and Smith rescued by Pocahontas, the well known historical story being reproduced in all reality possible. This will be a feature well worth seeing and the corner will probably be well filled with spectators desirous of seeing the battle. The float was prepared by Patrol Driver John Austin.

Suspended above the entrance to Foreman Brothers on lower Broadway is one of the most unique displays in the city. It represents "Old Paducah" up to date and is an automobile seated in which is the figure of an Indian. The wheels consist of clusters of electric lights which revolve and at night present a very pretty appearance.

The people are warned against wearing diamonds or jewelry of any description in a conspicuous place, or leaving their home without seeing that everything is securely locked. Thieves and grafters follow every carnival company, despite the efforts of the police, and it requires the utmost precaution to prevent thefts and pocket picking.

No rowdyism will be permitted during the week. If any effort is made to throw rubber balls, confetti containing dust, pepper or bags containing flour, such offenders will be promptly arrested for disorderly conduct. In Cairo last week a young lady was struck in the eye by one of the rubber balls and her sight almost destroyed.

Prof. Deal's band gave a concert in front of carnival headquarters this morning, attracting a large crowd. They appeared for the first time in their new red uniforms.

Remember, Republicans, if you fail to register next Tuesday you lose your vote.

OTHER NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

The Ministerial association met this morning in the office of Rev. G. W. Perryman at the First Baptist church. A letter was read from Rev. Samuel P. Jones, of Cartersville, Ga., who has been expected to hold a revival here this fall, saying that it would be impossible for him to come on account of ill health. He is in a very nervous state from overwork, and will not be able to fill any engagements for some time.

Succoth, or the Feast of the Tabernacles, a Jewish festival lasting seven days, begins at 6 p.m. today, the last day being called the Feast of Conclusion. Succoth is a symbol of the dwelling of the Jews in booth or tents in Jerusalem and is also called the Feast of Booths. The feast is also one of thanksgiving to the Lord for the year's blessings. Special services will be held at Temple Israel by Rabbi David Alexander this evening at 8 o'clock and Tuesday morning and for the Feast of Conclusion next Sunday evening and Monday morning.

Rally day and harvest home services were held at the First Cumberland Presbyterian church Sunday morning. There was a good attendance at both services. An attractive program was rendered at the rally day service which was celebrated at the Sunday school hour, and the pastor of the church, Rev. Geo. O. Bachman, preached an excellent sermon at the Harvest home service at 11 o'clock. There was one addition to the church.

The Union Rescue Mission on Third street has secured the services of Miss Ione A. V. Carr for this week. Miss Carr is an evangelist of eighteen years experience. A question box will receive your questions on Bible subjects. Don't miss tonight's subject, "Peter's Vision of Unclean Things to Eat."

The music of a newly organized Sunday school choir at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday morning was unusually creditable, and will be a great addition to the Sunday school of this congregation.

Rev. B. F. Wulfman, pastor of the German Evangelical church of this city, received a call last week to a church in Louisville, but announced yesterday to his congregation here that he had declined it.

THE INDEPENDENTS

They are Keeping Their Plans in the Dark.

An Independent Ticket This Week—Meeting Saturday Night.

A meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night by those back of the move to put out an independent ticket in Paducah. It is understood that a committee was appointed to recommend nominations for various municipal offices, and that those selected be first seen and it be ascertained whether or not they will accept.

It is said that the ticket will be announced this week. The gentlemen supposed to be interested in the move decline to talk at present.

PRETTY ART DISPLAY—Mrs. Gus Edwards, the well known artist, has on display in the window of the Columbia, at Fifth and Broadway, an attractive assortment of glassware and chinaware she has painted. Mrs. Edwards' talents are admired by all who have seen her work and the specimens now on display are among her best works.

GEN. YOUNG COMING

Commander of the U. S. Army to Visit Kentucky.

Afro-Asian Tragedy Is Reported From
■ Pike County—Drought in Breath-itt County.

OTHER NEWS OF KENTUCKY

U. S. COMMANDER TO COME.
■ Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5—Lieutenant General S. B. M. Young, in command of the United States army, and General Ian Hamilton of the English army probably will visit Camp Young about October 10. A letter was received from them yesterday accepting an invitation to be guests of the Louisville board of trade should they come. They have been perfecting their plans quietly, but it is almost a certainty that they will visit Louisville and Camp Young.

When the directors of the board of trade learned that General Young and General Hamilton were contemplating a trip to witness a portion of the maneuvers they commissioned Logan C Murray to invite the distinguished army officers to be the board's guests. Mr. Murray received the response yesterday, expressing appreciation of the invitation and accepting it in case the visit is made.

General Young has taken great interest in the maneuvers since they were first contemplated. Because of their being an innovation in American military affairs, he is, of course, watching the result with special eagerness. He was one of those most enthusiastic in favoring the maneuvers as a military educational move. It is hardly probable that he will spend many days in Kentucky and most of the time will be devoted to Camp Young.

TRAGEDY IN PIKE.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 5—A sensational story of murder for revenge comes from Pike county, Ky. A short time ago Robert Christian and J. B. Vance, young mountaineers, became enamored of Miss Mary Wolford, the 16 year old daughter of E. R. Wolford.

The girl smiled upon Christian, but turned a deaf ear to Vance's pleadings. Vance then stopped calling on the young woman. Wolford, the girl's father, was opposed to Christian, and he and Vance planned to do away with him. They made open threats. A few weeks ago Christian suddenly disappeared, and as time went on people who had heard Wolford and Vance make threats became suspicious of foul play. A searching party was organized and went to Christian's home, which was some distance back in the mountains. There they found the door riddled with bullets and a bloody trail leading into the mountains. This trail the searching party followed some distance, but returned without discovering anything else. Warrants were issued for Wolford and Vance, but they escaped. A young son of Wolford was arrested and he confessed that Vance had murdered Christian. A posse immediately started on a search for him and if he is captured there is danger of a lynching. A reward of $500 has been offered for both men. The girl is almost crazed with grief over the fate of her lover.

HONOR FOR KENTUCKY MAN.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 5—Mr. George Julian Zolnay, of New York, has been appointed superintendent of sculpture in the art department of the world's fair. Mr. Zolnay has been in this city several weeks the guest of his father-in-law, Dr. W. F. Gillim.

In addition to the appointment at the world's fair, he has been made professor of sculpture at the St. Louis School of Fine Arts. Mr. Zolnay is well known over the country and especially in the south on account of his splendid monuments of Winnie Davis and Jefferson Davis at Richmond, Va.

DROUTH IN BREATHITT.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 5—The drouth in this section is the worst that has been known in many years. The water has run out of most of the streams. In one section not far removed from Jackson there is only a small pool in the bed of one of the creeks. At this pool forty copperhead snakes have been killed during the week. The reptiles went there for water. Much damage to the late corn crop has been reported.

A DAVIS REUNION.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 5—At Fairview Saturday the Jefferson Davis Camp, U. V. C., held a delightful reunion, an immense crowd being present, including many veterans from Todd, Christian and Logan counties. A sumptuous dinner was served at the site of Jefferson Davis' birthplace. The principal address was delivered by Captain W. T. Ellis of Owensboro.

FULTON MAN TO WED.

Fulton, Ky., Oct. 5—Mr. Edwin S. Rogers has gone to Jackson, Tenn., where he is to be married Tuesday evening, October 6, to Miss Sarah Hays, the pretty daughter of Hon. S. D. Hays. The wedding will occur at 8 o'clock p.m., at the First Methodist church in Jackson and the ceremony will be pronounced by Rev. E. B. Ramsey of Fulton.

NEGROES ACQUITTED.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 5—The jury in the case of Blaine Williams and Fierce Ware, colored, charged with the murder of John Tandy at a negro festival at Pembroke last summer, brought in a verdict of not guilty and the prisoners were released from custody.

FOR AGED MINISTERS.

Marion, Ky., Oct. 5—At the Louisville Methodist conference about two thousand dollars was subscribed by members of the conference for the fund for superannuated preachers.

DEATH IN CHRISTIAN.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 5—Bolen Clark, a prominent octogenarian citizen of North Christian, dropped dead today at his home in Era.

WOMAN DROPPED DEAD.

Russellville, Ky., Oct. 5—Mrs. Chester Winlock, aged 30, dropped dead here. She was the widow of former County Clerk J. S. Winlock.

DO YOU WANT TO YAWN?

Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness and for a blood purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

SUES FOR $10,000

JOE TORIAN SUES CONTRACTOR
E. C. TERRELL FOR DAMAGES.

Joe Torian, colored, a minor, through his father, John Torian, has filed suit in the circuit court here against Contractor E. C. Terrell for $10,000 damages. He claims that January 14th last while employed on the Terrell farm, in Ballard county, he had trouble with the defendant, who shot him in the side, greatly injuring him. Mr. Terrell claims self defense, the negro making a move as if to draw a weapon previous to being shot. Lightfoot & Yonts are the lawyers.

"IT GOES RIGHT TO THE SPOT"

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. J. R. Smith, proprietor Smith House, Tenaha, Tex., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

CAPITALISTS HERE

PROMINENT MEN OF PITTSBURG PASS THROUGH PADUCAH.

Messrs. S. Garrison, J. W. Grier and L. T. Baugh, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived last night and left today for Livingston county to inspect some mining property owned by a syndicate of Eastern capitalists. Mr. Baugh, it is understood, is an expert who is getting $100 a day for his work.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

WATTERSON'S SON IN POLITICS

KING OF SPAIN TO WED.

Madrid, October 5—It is reported on excellent authority that the queen mother of Spain and Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria have arranged for the marriage of King Alfonso to the Archduchess Eleanor, the eldest daughter of the Archduke Charles Stephen of Austria. The archduke is King Alfonso's cousin and is the second cousin of Emperor Franz Joseph.

TO RAISE $200,000,000.

New York, October 5—A $200,000,000 aid fund for negroes is proposed by the commercial American negro national convention in the Bridge street A. M. E. church, Brooklyn in the report of the ways and means committee.

It was suggested that as money was needed the 10,000,000 negroes in the country could be taxed 41 cents a month, which would be $5 a year and would create a fund of $50,000,000 in one year or in four years $200,000,000 the interest of which at 4 per cent would be $8,000,000, which could be used for the establishment of factories and other business enterprises for the benefit of the negro.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

Washington Oct. 5—A good deal of pressure has been brought to bear on the president to induce him not to call congress into extraordinary session in November but to all callers who have spoken to him in that vein he has said that this government is committed to the proposition that the Cuban reciprocity treaty be made effective at the earliest possible date and he regards it as a matter of good faith that this country should keep its word. He had declined, therefore, to consider any proposition looking to the abandonment of the idea of an extraordinary session.

HENRY WATTERSON'S SON.

New York, Oct. 5—In support of his contention that the "young man" should have a voice in politics, Matthew F. Donohue, leader of the 21st assembly district, has chosen Harvey C. Watterson, 24 years old, a son of Colonel Henry Watterson, to represent the district at Albany. Young Watterson is an attorney of this city. The candidacy of the young nominee will be supported during the campaign by no less a personage than Colonel Watterson, who has agreed to appear on the local stamp, at the request of Mr. Donohue.

MILES IS NOT A CANDIDATE

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 5—General Nelson A. Miles made this statement here: "I am not a candidate for any office and don't expect to be, not even for president of the United States or governor of Texas."

SLOW WORK

VERY LITTLE BEING DONE ON THE STREET PAVING JOB.

Work on the street paving on Second street between Broadway and Jefferson streets is slow at present. Today a small force was worked. Some of the curbing has come, and if work has been started about two weeks before it was, things would be in better shape for the bad weather now on. Very little progress has been made since work was begun a week ago.

MOTHERS.

Who would keep their children in good health, should watch for the first symptoms of worms and remove them with White's Cream Vermifuge. It is the children's best tonic. It gets digestion at work so that their food does them good, and they grow up healthy and strong. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

We Paid $100,000

For Liquozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

This company, after testing Liquozone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the United States rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.

We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquozone. The most worthless product may have great claims made about it; but men don't pay a price like that save for a discovery of remarkable worth to humanity.

We spend 14 days in making each bottle of Liquozone; but the result is liquid oxygen—a product which will cure diseases which no medical skill can cure without it. It is now employed in every great hospital, and endorsed by every medical authority, the world over.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

Liquid Oxygen.

Liquozone is simply liquid oxygen—no drugs, no alcohol in it. It is the discovery of Pauli, the great German chemist, who spent 20 years on it. His object was to get such an excess of oxygen in staple

Dandruff—Dropsy Throat Troubles
Diarrhea—Erysipelas Tuberculosis
Fever—Gall Stones Tumors—Ulcers
Gout—Gout Venereal Diseases
Gastritis—Gleet Women's Diseases
All diseases that begin with fever—all inflammation—all catarrh—all contagious diseases—all the results of impure or poisoned blood.

In nervous debility Liquozone acts as a vitalizer, accomplishing what no drugs can do.

50c. Bottle Free.

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on your local druggist for a full-size bottle, and we will pay your druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to show you what Liquozone is, and what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it to-day, for it places you under no obligation whatever.

Liquozone costs 50c. and $1.

CUT OUT THIS COUPON

for this offer may not appear again. Fill out the blanks and mail it to the Liquid Ozon Co., 221-229 E. Kinzie St., Chicago.

My disease is:

I have never tried Liquozone, but if you will supply me a 50c. bottle free I will take it.

D.C. Give full address—write plainly.

Any physician or hospital not yet using Liquozone will be gladly supplied for a test.

PETER PURYEAR,

Notary Public McCracken County,
Oct. 1, 1903.

ELECTION OF 1899: W. S. TAYLOR, 198,714 WM. GOEBEL, 191,331 JOHN YOUNG BROWN, 12,140.

REGISTER TOMORROW.

Every Republican in Paducah is urged to register tomorrow. The polls will be open until 9 p. m., and no one should delay. The Republicans this year see victory ahead if they will register, and no one should wait. It is of the utmost importance that all register the first day. Those who would vote either in the November election or in any primary or other election next year must register this day. It is hoped that every Republican will do his duty. As former Governor Bradley says in his letter published today, one of the essential preliminaries of victory at the polls—the very foundation of success—is to register. Every Republican, after registering himself, should see that his Republican friends and acquaintances are registered. Owing to the excitement incident to the carnival and fair an unusual effort should be made to register the full strength of the party.

GEN. MURRAY EXPLAINS.

Adjutant General Murray in reply to the charges of Major W. C. Owen, that he, General Murray, has said he received a part of the Calhoun fee, declares that he never got a cent of it. He admits that he may have said he was entitled to something for extra work, or expressed the hope that he would receive something, but he says "there is no obligation on the part of Mr. Calhoun or anyone else to pay me any part of that fee." This sounds rather weak and does not explain why General Murray himself did not do all the work and collect the claim for the state which would have saved it the fee, inasmuch as it was his duty under the law, and he could not collect extra pay for doing it. Here is the law:

The adjutant general shall be furnished a suitable office in some of the public buildings at the capital of the state, and shall, in addition to his other duties, under the direction of the governor, collect moneys that may be due to the commonwealth on account of the war claims for arms and supplies furnished by the state to the United States on account of the war. He shall receive an annual salary of $2,000 for all services imposed on him by law, to be paid only out of the treasury.

Neither he received any of the fee or not, had General Murray done the work and collected the claim, the state would have been $71,000 better off. As it really happened, Captain Calhoun collected it and got about $71,000 for it, and General Murray, whose duty it was, did nothing and according to his statement got nothing. Certainly Captain Calhoun should be very grateful to the adjutant general of the state for the neglect of duty which afforded him the opportunity to rake off such a princely fee for work the adjutant general should have done for nothing. But General Murray may yet be rewarded. He does not say in his carefully guarded explanation that Captain Calhoun, at some more propitious time, may not give him a share, or that he would be averse to accepting it if it should be proffered.

GOV. BRADLEY'S CALL.

Some of the Democratic papers have been trying for several weeks to make it appear that Governor Bradley was taking no interest in the campaign in Kentucky this year, and that he and his friends in the Republican party do not care whether the ticket wins or not. Governor Bradley is too sensible a man to pay any attention to Democratic drivel, and too good a Republican to be in any respect disloyal to his party. He has just written a letter to Chairman John C. Wood of the Republican speakers' bureau which shows where he stands, and that he is for the ticket and intends to work for it. Later on, when he takes the stump the Democrats will have cause to change their minds about his not caring whether the ticket is elected or not, if they really ever thought such a thing. Here is former Governor Bradley's letter:

"Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2, 1903—Hon. John C. Wood, Chairman Speakers' Bureau—Sir: Had my health justified I would have spoken for the Republican party before this and shall certainly speak as soon as able.

"The best interest of the state requires the election of the Republican ticket, and I trust that no man will be found who is not willing to do his duty.

"I hope that no effort will be spared to register the vote in the cities and towns of the commonwealth, as this is the foundation of success, and in the absence of a full and proper registration we cannot hope to win. Your friend, W. O. BRADLEY."

GET BETTER SANITATION.

Out-enterprising neighbor Metropolis, has decided to construct sanitary sewerage. If Paducah had done that when she was the size of Metropolis, many a good citizen might now be among us instead of planted and forgotten. And if people will now connect their homes with the sewerage Paducah finally secured through the enterprise of the Republican council, they may thus save loved ones or friends, or both from serious or fatal illness. Sanitation is too well-established a safeguard in all cities of modern times and tendencies to be neglected as it is in Paducah, a busy hustling city of 25,000 people. The records show that not one-third of the people in the sewer district are using the sewerage, preferring the gutters and alleys. This is a reflection on their intelligence, as well as an imposition on those fellow-citizens who have done their part towards improving public health by connecting with the sewerage. The health officer reports that the death rate increased this summer quite perceptibly, and all no doubt, because of the lack of sanitation, the city this summer not even having what usually are known as "sanitary inspectors"—who are usually a couple of fellows too feeble or lazy to do anything but kill time. Let's give Paducah better streets and sanitation, and cheat the graveyard.

A Louisville judge has just decided that charitable institutions are not liable to patients for personal injuries sustained through the acts of employees. It is considered an important decision, as it settles a question that seldom, if ever, came up before in this state.

FORMER PADUCAH REPORTER HANGED—The local police have received information that George Herrington, a negro who formerly lived here and escaped from the city marshal's office two years ago by jumping from a window after being arrested for stealing $65 from a farmer, was hanged a few days ago at Peoria, Ill., for killing a police officer.

Cairo Girl Runs Away From Home and Comes Here

Arrested at a House on Second Street and Will Be Taken Back.

Captain Henry Bailey was in Cairo yesterday, and while there was asked by a lady named Porter to find her daughter here, and hold her, until some one came for her. Later the police here received a telephone message from the girl's stepfather, Mr. Porter, of 210 17th street, Cairo, asking them to locate her.

The girl, Miss Ora Ross, was found early this morning at a house on South Second street, and was taken to police headquarters to await the arrival of relatives. She is about 16 years old, rather large for her age, and a brunnette.

She says that she became infatuated with the manager of the Japanese show with the carnival and ran away with him. The police understood it was the drummer in the band. She says that she has been with Price's Floating palace, and does not appear to be very much disconcerted by her predicament.

Her relatives have been notified and will be after her by the first train. Meanwhile the officers will have charge of her.

STILL HANGS ON

CHARLES ALLISON LINGERS AT THE CITY HOSPITAL

Charles Allison, watchman on the Thomas Nevins, who was shot by Mate Bennett last Wednesday, is still alive at the city hospital, but is kept largely so by morphine. He now has a light fever, and it is not believed that he can survive much longer, although his vitality is remarkable.

IT'S A MISTAKE

TO ATTRIBUTE COFFEE ILLS TO POOR GRADES OF COFFEE.

Many people lay all the blame for the diseases caused by coffee upon the poorer grades of coffee but this is an error as the following proves: "I have used every kind of the best grade of tea and coffee that can be got from a first class grocer but never found one that would not upset my nervous system and it was not until I began to drink Postum Food Coffee in place of coffee and tea that I had relief from the terrible attacks of nervous sick headache from which I had suffered for 30 years.

"I had tried all kinds of medicines but none helped me.

"Soon after I stopped drinking coffee and began to drink Postum the headaches grew less and it was not long until I was entirely cured and I have never had a return of this distressing trouble for nowadays I never drink coffee but stick to Postum.

"As soon as my wife saw what Postum had done for me she gave up coffee which she had drank all her life. This was six weeks ago and she is a changed woman for her nervousness has all disappeared her face has become smooth and her cheeks have a good rosy red color. She sleeps well, too, something she could never do while she drank coffee. We consider Postum a household necessity in my house and have induced many friends to try this wonderful food drink in place of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Theatrical Notes.

Tonight is the opening of the Payton Sisters company at The Kentucky. They play all the week except tomorrow, Tuesday night, when they lay off, opening again Wednesday with a matinee. Their prices through the week will be 10, 20 and 30 cents with ladies free to see the opening performance tonight. The matinee prices, Wednesday and Saturday are 10 and 20 cents. "Utah," the play to be presented tonight is one of more than usual interest. It is a rural comedy drama, the scenes of which are laid in and about Salt Lake City and depicts life in Utah during the Mormon regime.

"The Sleepy King" as presented by the Walter Jones' Comic Opera company at The Kentucky Tuesday night promises to be the musical surprise of the season in this city. Giovanni Conterno, the New York bandmaster, spent five weeks with the company during rehearsals and incited the members of the company to put his original ideas into the musical numbers, and in many other ways improving the piece. There are twenty-seven district musical numbers, many of which are unusually novel and tuneful.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"Take this girl into custody. Confine her and put a strong guard over her."

In giving the order Hamilton jerked his thumb contemptuously toward Alice and at the same time gave Beverley a look of supreme defiance and hatred. When Helm began to speak he turned fiercely upon him and stopped him with:

"None of your advice, sir. I have had all I want of it. Keep your place or I'll make you."

Then to Beverley:

"Betreath, sir. When I wish to see you I'll send for you. At present you are not needed here."

The English Lieutenant saluted his commander, bowed respectfully to Alice and said:

"Come with me, miss, please."

Helm and Beverley exchanged a look of helpless and inquiring rage. It was as if they had said: "What can we do? Must we bear it?" Certainly they could do nothing. Any interference on their part would be sure to increase Alice's danger and at the same time add to the weight of their own humiliation.

Alice silently followed the officer out of the room. She did not even glance toward Beverley, who moved as if to interfere and was promptly motioned back by the guard. His better judgment, returning, held him from a rash and futile act until Hamilton spoke again, saying loudly as Alice passed through the door:

"I'll see who's master of this town if I have to shoot every French holder in it!"

"Women and children may well fear you, Colonel Hamilton," said Beverley.

"That young lady is your superior."

"You say that to me, sir!"

"It is the best I could possibly say of you."

"I will send you along with the wench if you do not guard your language. A prisoner on parole has no license to be a blackguard."

"I return you my parole, sir. I shall no longer regard it as binding," said Beverley, by a great effort holding back a blow. "I will not keep faith with a scoundrel who does not know how to be decent in the presence of a young girl. You had better have me arrested and confined. I will escape at the first opportunity and bring a force here to reckon with you for your villainy. And if you dare hurt Alice Roussillon I will have you hanged like a dog!"

Hamilton looked at him scornfully.

"I thought I ordered you to leave this room," he said, with an air and tone of lofty superiority. "And I certainly mean to be obeyed. Go, sir, and if you attempt to escape or in any way break your parole I'll have you shot."

"I have already broken it. From this moment I shall not regard it. You have heard my statement. I shall not repeat it. Govern yourself accordingly."

With these words Beverley turned and strode out of the house quite beside himself, his whole frame quivering.

Hamilton laughed derisively, then looked at Helm and said:

"Helm, I like you, I don't wish to be unkind to you, but positively you must quit breaking in upon my affairs with your ready made advice. I've given you and Lieutenant Beverley too much latitude, perhaps. If that young fool doesn't look sharp he'll get himself into a beastly lot of trouble. You'd better give him talk. He's in a way to need it just now."

"I think so myself," said Helm, glad to get back upon fair footing with the irascible governor. "I'll wait until he could get even with you quick enough, but he hasn't left Vincennes. I think Miss Roussillon would keep him here if the place were on fire."

Hamilton laughed dryly. He had thought just what Helm was saying Beverley's attention to Alice had not escaped his notice.

"Speaking of that girl," he remarked after a moment's silence, "what am I to do with her? There's no place to keep her, and Farnsworth insists that she wasn't to blame." He chuckled again and added:

"It's true as gospel. He's in love with her too. Seems to be glad she shot him. Says he's ashamed of himself for ever suspecting her of anything but being a genuine angel. Why, he's got as nippy as a rabbit and mumbles like a fool."

"Same as you or I at his age," said Helm, taking a chew of tobacco. "She is a pretty thing. Beverley doesn't know his foot from his shoulder blade when she's anywhere near him. Boys at the gate, on going in, he had picked up Alice's locket and broken chain, which he mechanically put in his pocket. It was all like a dream to him, and yet he had a clear purpose. He was going away from Vincennes, or at least he would try to go, and woe be to Hamilton on his coming back. It was so easy for an excited young mind to plan great things and to expect success under apparently impossible conditions. Beverley gave Jean a note for Alice. It was this that took him to Roussillon place, and no sooner fell the night than he shouldered a gun furnished him by Mme. Godere and, guided by the woodsman's fine craft, stole away southward, thinking to swim the icy Wabash some miles below and then strike across the plains of Illinois to Kaskaskia.

CHAPTER XII. A RAPIER THRUST.

BEVERLEY'S absence was not noticed by Hamilton until late on the following day, and even then he scouted Helm's suggestion that the young man was possibly carrying out his threat to disgrace his parole.

"He would be quite justified in doing it. You know that very well," said Helm, with a laugh. "And he's just the man to undertake what is impossible. Of course he'll get scalped for his trouble, and that will cost you something, I'm happy to say."

"You can manage them if you try. A little jolly kindness goes a long way with 'em. I had no trouble while I held the town."

Hamilton bit his lip and was silent.

Helm was exasperatingly good tempered, and his jocularity was irresistible. While he was yet speaking a guard came up, followed by Jean, the hunchback, and, saluting, said to Hamilton:

"The lad wants to see the young lady, sir."

Hamilton gazed quizzically at Jean, who planted himself in his habitual attitude before him and stared up into his face with the grotesque expression which seems to be characteristic of hunchbacks and unfledged birds—the look of an embodied and hideous joke.

"Well, sir, what will you have?" the governor demanded.

"I want to see Alice, if you please."

"What for?"

"I want to give her a book to read."

"Ah, indeed. Where is it? Let me see it."

Jean took from the breast of his loose jerkin a small volume, dog eared and mildewed, and handed it to Hamilton. Meantime he stood first on one foot, then on the other, gnawing his thumb nail and blinking rapidly.

"Well, Helm, just look here!"

"What?"

"Haven't you ever read it?"

"Read what?"

"This novel."

"Never read a novel in my life; never expect to."

Hamilton laughed freely at Helm's expense, then turned to Jean and gave him back the book.

are boys. I'm a sort of boy myself." "If she'd give up that flag I'd let her go," said Hamilton. "I hate to confine her. It looks brutal and makes me feel like a tyrant."

"Have you ever happened to notice the obvious fact, Governor Hamilton, that Alice Roussillon and Father Beret are not all the French in Vincennes?"

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that I don't for a moment believe that either the girl or the priest knows a thing about where that flag is. They are both as truthful and honorable as people ever get to be. I know them. Somebody else got that flag from under the priest's floor. You may depend upon that. If Miss Roussillon knew where it is she'd say so and then dare you to make her tell where it's hidden."

"Oh, the whole town is rotten with treason! That's very clear. There's not a loyal soul in it outside of my forces."

"Thank you for not including me among the loyalists."

"Humph! I spoke of these French people. They pretend to be true, but I believe they are all traitors."

"You can manage them if you try. A little jolly kindness goes a long way with 'em. I had no trouble while I held the town."

LOESER'S TROUBLES

An Effort by Creditors to Force Him Into Bankruptcy.

He Returned to Paducah and the Papers Were Served—Says He Was Drugged.

LOST $2100, HE CLAIMS

Julius Loeser, until recently in the dry goods business at 106 South Second street, has discovered that misfortunes never come singly. He claims to have been robbed of about $2100 at Carbondale, Ill., last Thursday by being given "knockout" drops by a stranger.

He returned to the city Saturday evening and Deputy U. S. Marshal Hubbard served on him involuntary bankruptcy papers.

The petition to force him into voluntary bankruptcy was filed by Wheeler & Hughes for Brohm Brothers, Hecht Bros. & Co., and the Jacob Hat and Glove Co., of St. Louis. It is understood that there are numerous other claims against him amounting to perhaps as much as $6,000 or $7,000.

It is claimed in the petition that the transfer of his store on Second street a few days ago to others was illegal and fraudulent and to defraud creditors, and if the federal court grants the petition it will be taken charge of for the benefit of creditors. Loeser claims he left Paducah for the purpose of paying some bills at Cairo and St. Louis, and that he met a stranger on the train between Cairo and Carbondale. He had paid a bill of $500 at Cairo, he claims, and had about $2100 in $100 and $50 bills when he boarded the train at Cairo. The stranger claimed to be named Johnson and to live at Effingham, Ill., and after eating together at a restaurant at Carbondale Loeser accepted a drink from the stranger's bottle and began to get drowsy from drugs or "knockout drops." He was then assaulted and robbed, and was found by some girls who work in a restaurant.

Loeser stated today to a reporter

HAYES' BEECHWOOD EMULSO-HYPO WITH IRON

Makes Fat, Strength, Blood, Bone and Muscle.

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, don't feel like rising in the morning for the day's work, you should take a bottle of this wonderful medicine.

BOGOTA, Miss., March 19, 1903.

Gentlemen: It affords me no little pleasure to testify to the wonderful properties of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron as it saved my life when the physicians said that I could not get well. After taking six or eight bottles I weighed 18 pounds. This has been ten years and I am still living in fine health. Wishing you success in its sale, I am yours truly,

FRED S. DAWSON.

Pastor M. E. Church, South.

Read what the editor of the Southerner, Okolona, Miss., says:

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. In 1901 my mother commenced taking Hayes Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the doctors said her lungs were so badly involved that she would not likely be alive a few weeks. It improved her so rapidly that she was soon in good health for one of her years. I wish you the success you deserve with your Beechwood Emulso.

Suffered six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. Entirely cured by Beechwood Emulso-Hypo:

ARLINGTON, Ky., March 19, 1903.

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. Dear Sirs: I suffered for six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. This spring I took six bottles of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo and it cured my cough, and I think I am entirely well. Yours truly,
